Put a house on that Carmel lot of yours. It will bring you a satisfactory income.

Trustees Hold Long Session

Tuesday night's meeting of the city Board of Trustees was one of the longest and busiest sessions yet held by that body.

Immediately following the reading of the minutes, Trustee Beckdolt obtained the floor and addressed the board on a question of personal privilege. He left the State on business, and returned, to be informed by various persons that such action was illegal without obtaining permission from the Board of Trustees. Investigation, however, resulted in disclosing the fact that no such law exists.

Protests, official and otherwise, against the manner of the proposed improvement of Ninth, Twelfth and Thirteenth avenues, determined the board to table the entire matter for the time being, on motion of Trustee Kibbler.

D. W. Willard's request that the customary police service be provided at the Forest Theatre on the evenings of July 2 and 3 was granted.

Mrs. E. A. Kluegel presented a numerously signed petition asking that the trees in the vicinity of the former Vachell property be preserved. The petition was placed on file for future reference.

The matter of regulating campers within the city limits came in for considerable discussion. The upshop of it was that Trustee Beckdolt was directed to have an ordinance prepared covering the matter. Meantime "No Camping" signs will be erected.

Promiscious automobile parking on private property, especially in the west end of the city, has got to be a problem. It was suggested that property owners bothered in this way put up "No Parking" placards.

Trustee Reardon's inquiry as to what the town was going to do regarding a Fourth of July celebration resulted in a motion authorizing the chairman to appoint a citizens committee to arrange for the observance of the day. And a new flag will be raised at the City Hall on that day.

The anti gambling ordinance was passed to print and ordered published. It becomes effective July 1. First reading was given an ordinance providing for the appointment of a city electrician.

Bird Club Has Delightful Outing

The Bird Club picnic came off scheduled last Friday, having as their objective point the Carmel River near the Ollason place. It was a beautiful day and the birds were all endeavoring to do their best in rival song.

The place is ideal for them, as there are trees and shrubs to the water's edge. Over thirty different birds were identified in a short time. With sweet song the russet back thrush and grosbeak entertained us while we lunched, while warblers and goldfinches, vigor wrens and warbling vieros, western bluebirds and flickers, tohees, linnets and chickadees and other birds kept up an an all-day concert.

We departed for home at 4 p.m., but saw a grosbeak and other birds bathe preparatory for their evensong.

It was unanimously voted a perfect day.

BOY SCOUTS IN YOUNG ARMENIA

Strangest Troop of All in Constantinople Being Made Into Good Citizens.

American Boy Scout training is aiding prominently in the rehabilitation of hundreds of little Armenian boy refugees from the Turkish massacres, who have been organized into a scout troop in Constantinople as the solution of one of the most troublesome problems that confronted the Near East Relief workers in that city.

Hounded and driven for four years, having seen their parents and relatives slaughtered or worse by Turks and Kurds and themselves forced to beg, steal or do almost anything to eke out the barest existence, these boys had completely lost their moral sense when they finally found refuge in the Near East Relief orphanges.

The boys had been clad in rags for so long that they had forgotten how to take care of clothes. This was a tragedy when the Near East Relief had need of every pair of shoes and of every suit of clothes for new boys constantly coming in.

Then the boys were organized as Boy Scouts and given their uniforms. They began to be careful of their school clothes as well as of their uniforms.

They had been so often hungry they had come to steal without compunction. When they first entered the orphanages they continued to steal. One boy stole a purse from his American teacher. For two or three weeks after he became a Boy Scout he was obviously uneasy. One day he came to her with the purse in his hand.

"I don't want to give it back," he said reluctantly. "But I have to. I'm a Boy Scout now."

To form more scout troops to transform these little unfortunates into good citizens, is one of the reasons why the Near East Relief, 1 Madison avenue, New York city, is making its appeal for funds.
